

Submissions

Are you a writer with a story idea, a public relations person with a great client or event, or an interior design professional with a recent project you'd like us to see? Here are some guidelines:

What We Look For

We only publish stories about Chicago-area residential projects (including second homes in the surrounding area) and people. Products must be available for sale at a showroom or boutique in the Chicago area.

Depending on the circumstances, we will consider a project that has been published before. Please send the previously published story, and an explanation of what would be different about the piece in Chicago HOME. We occasionally plan special theme issues, but rather than trying to figure out our needs, simply tell us what you've got. We're good at figuring out what to do with a story if we like it.

We have a very small staff; we regret that we may not be able to respond to every submission.

Story Ideas

Please send an email describing the story or project, along with pertinent images (lo-res digital jpegs are fine—these are just for our information and not for publication) to: chicagohome@chicagomag.com.

Please do not send more than 10 images via email. To send CDs of images or color printouts, mail to:

Chicago HOME

435 N. Michigan Ave., #1100

Chicago IL 60611

We will also consider publishing professional quality hi-res images. Please include a photographer's name and contact information.

News/Events For Our Web Site

For news intended for our Web site (lectures, sales, events, tours, openings), please send to chicagohome@chicagomag.com.

Resources

To be considered for inclusion in our Resources section, please send a description of your business, address, web site, and contact info to chicagohome@chicagomag.com. Put “Resources” and your company name in the subject line. Entries in this section, as with all the information in our magazine and on our Web site, are independent of advertising. Our writers research and write the listings. We regret that we cannot respond individually to requests, nor do we have the staff or space to include every worthy business or professional.

See our Editorial Calendar for the planned schedule of categories.
