Freelance Writers

Write for TCW! We're looking for talented, deadline-conscious writers to contribute to our pages. These may include profiles on professional Chicago women, health and beauty features, career and finance pieces, and more. In addition, if you're an expert in health, workplace, wine and dine or other topic, we'd love to hear from you. With an average of 203,000 professional women browsing our pages every month, and described as "Chicago's networking vehicle in print for working women," TCW is the perfect place for exposure for your talent. Email qualifications, clips, preferred area of interest and/or story ideas to Managing Editor Cassandra Gaddo, cgaddo@tcwmag.com, or send via mail to 150 E. Huron, Ste. 1001, Chicago, IL 60611. Queries with story pitches strongly preferred.
